

JAMIE THOMPSON

FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCES EDUCATOR

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am a teacher who is passionate about instruction and using technology in meaningful ways. I seek to engage students through relevant, applicable, and hands-on learning opportunities to prepare them for life, both now and after high school.

RELATED SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Proficient in the use of Schoology as a Learning Management System
- Experience with a variety of Web 2.0 tools
- Development and implementation of Standards Referenced Grading
- Detail-oriented, adaptable, creative, problem-solver

RECOGNITIONS

Teacher of the Month,
Columbia Kiwanis Club March 2021

Secondary Teacher of the Quarter,
Fulton Public Schools February 2015

CONTACT ME:

Mobile: (417) 343-6243
Email: jamthompson@cpsk12.org
Address: 4118 E Reynosa Dr.,
Columbia, MO 65201

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Family & Consumer Sciences Teacher
Battle High School | August 2017 - present

- Assist in curriculum development and implementation
- Develop, administer, and evaluate assessments
- Utilize technology for relevant and engaging instruction
- Serve on Practical Arts Standards Referenced Grading committee
- Designed self-paced summer school curriculum and 2 virtual courses implemented during the 2020-21 school year

Family & Consumer Sciences Teacher
Fulton High School | August 2013 - May 2017

- Develop lesson plans and assessments
- Utilize technology for relevant and engaging instruction
- Serve on High School Leadership team to explore and implement Standards Referenced Grading

Family & Consumer Sciences Teacher
Holcomb (KS) High School | August 2011 - May 2013

- Develop lesson plans and assessments
- Utilize technology for relevant and engaging instruction
- Serve as advisor for multiple student organizations

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

University of Missouri

Master of Science in Learning Technology, expected 2023
Emphasis: Technology in Schools

Missouri State University

Bachelor of Science in Education, 2010
Concentration: Family and Consumer Sciences
Graduated with honors